DIAGNOSTIC RADIOLOGY DEPARTMENT WAS OPENED IN YUGRA WITH LUKOIL SUPPORT

President of PJSC LUKOIL Vagit Alekperov and Deputy Governor of the Khanty-Mansi Autonomous Area (Yugra) Alexey Zabozlaev attended a festive ceremony today dedicated to the opening of a new department of diagnostic radiology in Kogalym. The Company sponsored the medical institution by providing it with state-of-the-art equipment.

Highly experienced professionals from all over Russia will use modern equipment to diagnose diseases in all medical sciences, from neurology to pediatrics and oncology.

During the working trip to Kogalym, Vagit Alekperov and Alexey Zabozlaev also met with the new residents of a 16-storey high-rise comprising 118 apartments constructed with assistance of the Company.

Thanks to LUKOIL's support, the "Siberia" culture center was completely renovated, construction of the branch of the State Academic Maly Theater of Russia is underway, while erection of the Church of St. Tatiana is at its closing stage. The funds were allocated by the LUKOIL Charity Fund.
