LUKOIL GROUP EMPLOYEES COMPLETE ANTITRUST SERVICE TRAINING

Employees of LUKOIL Group's Russian companies have completed the Theory of Competition Law and Practices of Antimonopoly Regulations training at the Training Center of the Federal Antimonopoly Service in Moscow.

Senior officials of Russia's Antimonopoly Service informed the participants of the workshop on latest updates in the antitrust legislation and current trends of compliance practices, related to various issues, including abuse of dominant position on the market and anti-competitive agreements.

The training was organized as part of a plan for implementation of LUKOIL Group's Antimonopoly Policy. The company's antimonopoly compliance implies a package of measures, taken to improve employees' awareness of antitrust legislation standards and possible risks, resulting from violation of the law.
