LUKOIL WINS IN BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT CATEGORY OF EXPERT-400 RATING

LUKOIL emerged the winner in the category “Vicennial Outcomes. Dynamic Business Development” of the rating Expert-400 based on last year’s results.

During the past 20 years, the company’s revenues have increased more than 30 times over and in 2013 totaled USD 141.452 billion.

The ranking of Russia’s major companies in terms of sales volume was prepared by the rating agency Expert RA.

Each year, the project Expert-400 aims to identify Russia’s largest companies and, based on their performance, analyze the role, structure and major development trends of big business. Expert-400, first compiled in 1994, initially included 200 Russian industrial companies, whereas the latest list covers twice as many.
