LUKOIL UNVEILS INTEGRATED OPERATIONS CENTER

President of PJSC LUKOIL Vagit Alekperov visited Integrated Operations Center of LUKOIL's wholly owned subsidiary OOO "LUKOIL-PERM", launched at ″Polazna″ Central Engineering and Technical Office.

The Center, launched as part of the Intelligent Field project, was designed to increase operational efficiency of the affiliate through gain in production, lower costs, minimized losses, and to sustain high standards of industrial safety and environmental protection.

Integrated Operations Center uses new approaches to operational management, including integrated planning, close cooperation with research institutes, joint analysis of process operations and cooperative decision making. At the end of 2016 pilot launch will help look into possible replication of the Intelligent Field project at OOO "LUKOIL-PERM" and Integrated Operations Centers across other subsidiaries of the Company.
