PRESS RELEASE
MARCH 22, 2021

PRESS SERVICE STATEMENT

LUKOIL Press Service warns all the concerned parties of false information being distributed in the Internet, namely fraudulent offers to get a substantial discount at LUKOIL fuel stations and to buy fake "bonus" or "fuel" cards.

The ill-minded persons send out misleading messages by e-mail and SMS, imitate LUKOIL e-mail addresses and social media accounts, and use Company's trademarks and corporate identity without any authorization.

We kindly ask you to use caution when communicating with unknown parties and double-check the information in the received documents against LUKOIL's official websites (www.lukoil.ru and www.lukoil.com) as well as official websites of LUKOIL Group's companies. We would also like to remind you to exercise caution when disclosing personal information, avoid using identical passwords at different resources, not to upload personal data to questionable websites, and to abstain from buying LUKOIL cards via Internet.

LUKOIL is not responsible for any undesirable effect that might result from the use of such false information.
