LUKOIL LIFTS ITS TEN MILLIONTH TON OF OIL IN THE PERM REGION SINCE THE BEGINNING OF THE YEAR

Today, LUKOIL's President Vagit Alekperov and the Governor of the Perm Region Viktor Basargin attended Forum of Industrialists in Perm.

The representatives of participating companies, industrial groups, the regional government and the deputies of the regional parliament agreed to join efforts to enhance the operational competitiveness and the social responsibility of the Perm Region industrial cluster.

During the visit, Vagit Alekperov also met with LUKOIL Group's personnel in the Perm Region and discussed the key performance indicators of the year's first half, the Company's future development strategy and answered the local employees' questions.

"LUKOIL has been successfully operating in the region for more than two decades. LUKOIL subsidiaries are the largest tax payers to the regional budget. It is remarkable, that LUKOIL lifted its ten-millionth ton of oil in Perm Region since year start just yesterday, exactly on Oilman's Day," Vagit Alekperov said.
