MONUMENT TO PIONEERING OILMEN IS UNVEILED IN PERM REGION

Today in Polazna (Perm Region) President of PJSC LUKOIL Vagit Alekperov, Envoy of the Russian President to Volga Federal District Mikhail Babich and Governor of Perm Region Victor Basargin took part in the official opening of a monument to the pioneering oilman. The ceremony was attended by oil industry veterans of the Perm region.

The monument commemorates pioneers of oil production in Perm whose efforts and accomplishments are enscribed in the history of Russian fuel and energy complex.

The bronze sculpture depicts an oilman in front of a 1930s drilling rig holding a child releasing a dove of peace. The monument is 4 meters high and weights about 8 tons. Similar sculptures will be installed in 2016 in other towns of the Perm Region (Chernushka, Osa, Kungur and Krasnokamensk) to celebrate the 25th anniversary of LUKOIL.
