LUKOIL INCLUDED IN TOP SUSTAINABILITY RATINGS

LUKOIL is in top 30 of the World Benchmarking Alliance's Oil and Gas Benchmark – an international climate and energy benchmark that measures and ranks the efforts of the world's 100 largest oil and gas companies, assessing their climate policies compliance with the Paris Agreement goals to limit the increase of the global temperature to 1.5 ° C.

LUKOIL was included in the top 20 in the ACT Scores rating, a subsection of Oil and Gas Benchmark that assesses the companies' efforts on low-carbon transition.

LUKOIL also became 17th in the ranking of Top 50 Russian Companies Paying Great Attention to Human Rights, Diversity and Inclusivity Issues, prepared by RAEX rating agency. LUKOIL took one of the leading positions among oil and gas companies in the ranking.

PJSC LUKOIL Board of Directors approved LUKOIL Group Sustainability Report for 2022.

Information:

World Benchmarking Alliance is an association of non-profit organisation and financial institutions launched in September 2018 in order to promote global achievement of the UN Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs). The alliance prepares a number of public benchmarks that assess the world's largest companies' contributions towards achieving the SDGs.
RAEX rating agency is one of the largest Russian agencies specialising in non-credit ratings. The agency focuses on ratings in education, non-profit sector, sustainable development, as well as business development infrastructure.
